No. 9

China

Miss Ya-Ching Lee, aviatrix and the only Chinese member of the America's Caterpillar Club will be the speaker of the day at the next Tuesday's meeting.

Miss Lee won her membership in the Caterpillar Club of America in 1935, when she fell out of a stunting airplane in San Francisco bay. Only persons who have saved their lives via the parachute route are eligible to this Club and she is the only Chinese member.

Her visit to San Diego is on behalf of the Chinese Civilian Relief and she will speak at several gatherings.

Educated in Switzerland and the United States she became interested in aviation and started flying about 1933.

At the present time she is touring the United States in behalf of her countrymen.

Besides flying, Miss Lee was also a nurse at Shanghai and has seen real war service in her country.

"In order to be true builders we must be true citizens. This cardinal qualification is basic for all the other Kiwanis objectives. It is the virtue that makes the efforts of all mankind a pleasure and reaches across the border lines to make the whole world kin." — Camas-Washougal, Washington.

ROBERT L. MUELLER, Editor

The program last Tuesday was so interesting that quite a few members stayed several minutes beyond the usual quitting time to see the finish of an excellent film.

Photography has certainly grown into one of the most necessary as well as interesting pastimes and it was indeed great to see just how the cameras as well as the films and paper are made.

Having been through this great institution, it was very pleasing to see the pictures and Clayton Phair deserves the thanks of the Club for this fine program.

Several members were handed cards to fill out as to their comment on the film. It would no doubt be interesting to find out just what members thought.

Thank you Clayton for your time and effort and thank the Eastman Kodak Company for the use of the film.

MEXICAN PESO

We were very much surprised at the lack of memory on the part of one of our members whose names we will not mention. Roy Kidd should remember that he is now a member of the Kiwanis Club and then he will not be fined for making such a break again.

Coming back to the "fine" matter.

Will you please explain Roy just why you put a Mexican Peso into the fine box. What shall we do with this coin, hold it against you?

We were glad for the many visiting Kiwanians at the meeting and especially R. H. Lawler who introduced himself as a member of the Springfield, Ohio Club and then had to correct himself as being a member of the Springfield, Illinois Club.

There was something queer about this and we believe that his Club should look into the matter very closely for he will be coming home sometime and they might have to send to Ohio to bring him in.

A CHICK, CHICK HERE

Sam Fox was presented with a baby chick inasmuch as he protested a week ago about the questionable age of the eggs used in the salad at our Easter program.

It is suggested, however, that after this, the committee please instruct the chick that the table or the hand of the president is a poor place to forget himself.

Sam of course promised that the chick would be full grown by next Tuesday and all members would partake of a real chicken dinner at his expense. (?) How about it Sam?

"The efficiency with which our club operates depends on your interest in what the club is doing. Your interest will be in proportion to the time and thought you give to Kiwanis activities."—Eustis, Florida.

A special letter from the program chairman to the San Diego Lions Club invites members to meet with that Club, holding their meeting on Thursday, April 20, at the San Diego Club at noon.

Charles Dunmore, the chairman states that they are to have a very outstanding dynamic speaker, Mr. Charles Brandon Booth, nationally known Extension Secretary of the Volunteers of America. His subject being "The Small Boys Problem—A Man Sized Job."

Members are invited to visit the Lions Club to hear Mr. Booth and should telephone reservations to Mr. Sullivan at the San Diego Club in advance.

"The fundamentals of Kiwanis may be defined as moral, spiritual, and practical that are at once the basis and the appeal of the Kiwanis movement. They may be listed as: integrity, faith, charity, co-operation, vision, friendship, and civic pride. These are all factors that are essential to progress and well being."—Kitchener-Waterloo, Ontario.

"I am glad I am a Kiwanian! Kiwanis takes action unanimously and with a determined spirit. It speaks as a group for individuals. Kiwanis is willing to fight for those things which are good for the community."—Wabash, Indiana.
