KIWANIS CLUB OF GUATEMALA CITY

Two Club members, BOB LOWELL and BOB CRONK, recently attended the chartering of the first Kiwanis Club in the country of Guatemala. The charter dinner in Guatemala City on November 19 included Past International Presidents TED JOHNSON and BILL EAGLES (the chartering officer).

TED and BILL, along with BOB LOWELL, are on the Board of Directors of Project Concern. BOB CRONK is Project Concern's Executive Director. They were in Guatemala to attend a series of meetings on low cost health care for developing areas. Guatemala is one of seven countries in which Project concern maintains a medical, nutrition and health care program.

"WATCHBIRD"

PREZ HARRY chaired a very busy Board meeting Thursday morning... A lot of business was accomplished in an hour - plus fellowship and fun... A great way to start a new day. And we thank our Club members for attending! Remember fellas - you are always welcome and you receive a make-up.....

There are three seats available for the Pasadena trip Friday, Dec. 31 - leave at 7:30 a.m. - return at 5 p.m. Lunch with the Pasadena Kiwanians, Rose Bowl Coaches & players - meet the Rose Bowl Queen and her court, the Presidents of USC and the University of Michigan. Call the office - 233-0257, if you want to go.....

The outstanding tribute dinner to JACK MURPHY, on his 25th anniversary as Sports Editor of the San Diego Union, looked like a miniature Kiwanis Club meeting. The following were seen in attendance (and there were probably more that were lost in the crowd): HARRY FRELS, WINN BAILEY, OZ THORESON, MILT CHEVERTON, BUD SPRAGUE, BILL QUIRK, GRIFF HAYES, FRANK ALESSIO, STEVE HORRELL, BOB BREITBARD, AND BORTHWICK, JIM BROWN, DON CLARKSON, IVOR deKIRBY, BOB DELAVAL, ORVAL HARBOUGH, BILL GIBBS, JULE FINK, DUKE FERRARA, JUNIOR TODD, DOUG GIDDINGS, CHIP GOODWIN, DICK HAUGH, FRED KINNE, KEN KLEIN, & CLIF BAXTER. Over 600 attended. It was a real professional program... Congratulations to the Greater Sports Association members for staging this wonderful affair.

We have another excellent program next week... so be sure to attend fellas.

SEE YOU ALL TUESDAY, DECEMBER 7th!
