SAN DIEGO KIWANIS CLUB

TUESDAY AT NOON November 18, 1980

SCOTTISH RITE CENTER, SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

PROGRAM

"KIWANIS - INTERACTING WITH CONCERN"

Speaker:

DR. WILLIAM M. EAGLES

Chairman, Board of Directors
Project Concern International
Past President, Kiwanis International

CHAIRMAN OF THE DAY

ROBERT P. LOWELL
Attorney

INVOCATION

C. R. "BOB" CRONK
Project Concern, Inc.

THE PROGRAM

DR. WILLIAM M. EAGLES, a neurosurgeon from Richmond, Virginia; is Project Concern's Chairman of the Board of Directors. Bill joined the Board in 1972 and served as chairman of the Board's Operations Committee-which is responsible for the maintenance of the field program facilities.

A civic leader for over 25 years, Bill recently retired from private practice to devote more time to his duties with the Peer Review Systems Organization.

Bill has been a member of Kiwanis International since 1956. He served as President of Kiwanis International in 1973 and has been very active with the Experiment in International Living Committee; International Committee on Boys & Girls Work, and the International Committee on Circle K Clubs.

Dr. Eagles is a graduate of Duke University School of Medicine where he remains a member of the Alumni National Council. He did postgraduate studies in neurosurgery at the Serafirmer Hospital in Stockholm Sweden, and at New York University. Bill is a Charter Member of the American Trauma Society.

In 1974, Dr. Eagles received the A.H. Robins Community Service Award presented by the Medical Society of Virginia. He still serves on various medical boards and is active in numerous community service programs.

PREZ SEZ

WELCOME BACK, HERB KLIEN..!

Herb has returned to San Diego to be the Editor-in-Chief, Copley Press, and gave us an unusual insight behind the scenes in the real drama of the National News Media and the President. Having been on both sides, this was a rare treat for all who were in attendance... Also, Tuesday was VETERAN'S DAY and the time to take a moment honoring those who were active in the Armed Services of our country. More significantly for us when we realize how many of our own members served with high distinction and, in many cases, great honor.

LOSE SOME, GAIN SOME DEPT.

Our membership roster goes through an annual 10-15% change...loosing good men because of transfers and other causes, means a regular member recruitment for the entire membership. The election of RONALD REAGAN as the 40th President of the U. S. signals the move of ED MEESE (his chief of staff), RON FRANKUM, and no doubt others before the transition has been completed. We intend to replace them with men of comparable quality. In 1980-81 every member should be a sponsor..the vitality and strength of the Club depends..

BUSY BUSINESSMEN BENEFITS

We are a businessman's Club. Check the Roster and you will find a cross section of the SD business community in industry, finance, government, law, medicine, etc. When you need information or help, check the Roster and call a fellow Kiwanian. It pays to know all the members and what they do.

XPECT XMAS XCITEMENT

TABLE TALK

HANK MONROE (RAdm, ret.) had a great week enjoying the election results..then it all went awry with the Charger game Sunday... CHUCK CRULL (Enginner, Civil) claimed to be the youngest at his table..says the others knew better-but didn't want to be reporters. PAT & JIM HURRY (Many name INS. Co.) say the XMAS TICKETS are going fast..... ART EMERSON (Exec. Hall of Champs) was at a Kiwanis Meeting in S.F. last week and would have claimed an Inter-Club, but the other three Kiwanians would not get off the Trolley..! ...ROBERT LOUIS STEVENSON, SONNY'S Brother, was a guest and signed many autographs.... One table all claimed to be 39 - so no report from youngest.... RAY BLAIR, the SD City Mgr., was a guest and sent along the good wishes of MAYOR PETE..... FRED BAKER (VP, Thearle Music) was elected Nat'l Dir., Nat'l Assn. of Music Merchants for a 3 year term. ....GORDON HURLBURT (Partner at BARNEY & BARNEY) & IVOR deKIRBY (Pearson Ford) talked about their HS Football team in 1932, Gordon played End, the guy on the other end was ELDRED PECK..now known as GREGORY PECK.....AL HUNT (Hunt Enterprises) is working on projects 12 months in advance and wonders if he will feel like doing them then..... PASCAL DILDAY (a guest) reported that he was the new Chairman of the USC Board of Trustees and that they had never hear of ED SCOTT??? (Heritage Leasing)..... MAC McNARY (Exec. VP, SD Trust) just celebrated his 54th year: (1) Married to Gladys (2) With the Bank (3) Moved to San Diego... (THAT is efficiency...!) BILL STURGEON (SD Office Supply) has been fighting bob-cats at his spread in Alpine. They are a real menace.....USC-34 Stanford less... SHERWOOD RITCHIE (Cotton-Ritchie) says he is tired of being the youngest at the table (?)....MIKE COOK (COOK JEWELERS) and bride are expecting their 3rd little one soon. He says they both were so strong for Reagan, they would have called the whole thing off if he'd lost....."VAN" Van der Maaten (TRW) is retireing Jan. 1st and would like some ideas on what he can do for a 3rd Career... (Become a Budhist & start all over again in the 'other' life?....GAGE SLUSSER and wife are heading out to the HIGH SIERRAS this week.....

A SPECIAL GUEST LAST TUESDAY.....
GALEN COFFMAN'S International Relations Committee, introduced SOHRAB, CYRUS, RAMTIN as our Foreign Student of the month. A bright, handsome, young man of 20... a native of IRAN who wished for our hostages return and his when IRAN hopefully comes to it's civilized senses.....

It is much easier to be critical than to be correct.
