THE PROGRAM

.....VIC SALAZAR

Have you ever watched the 4:30 news on NBC 7/39, if so I am sure you noticed Anchor and Reporter, Vic Salazar who purportedly started his journalism career when he was 12.

Vic is a local and graduated from Mt. Miguel High School in Spring Valley. He attended UCLA and after interning in San Diego he was anchor in Bakersfield for 6 years. Not only is Vic versatile but he is the recipient of 2 Emmys and a Golden Mike, recognition for his reporting skills.

tidbits from the meeting meeting

—Late arrivals

James Rigopoulos and Bob Shumake paid a fine and we don't know if it was just because they were late or they tried to blame it on a fallen tree on I-163. Shumake in trying to distract us all shared that our Dr. All is finally getting some accordion lessons. Lots of heads nodded that that was a GOOD SIGN for 2005. Marian Liebowitz not only reminded us of the free CONCERTS at the Lyceum, but proudly confided that her wedding date is Valentine's Day.

CONGRATULATIONS...

Charlie Coleman announced Mid-Winter Conference will take place in Riverside on Feb. 12 at the Riverside Mission Hotel...
