THE PROGRAM

.....PETER J. HALL

Peter Hall, President of the Centre City Development Corporation (CCDC) started serving the City of San Diego in January 1995. His role is to advance economic redevelopment in San Diego's 1,500-acre downtown: creating jobs, business opportunities and living spaces. He directs a staff of over 40 professionals proficient in the areas of urban planning, real estate development, financial planning, marketing and public relations.

From 1983—1991 Hall was president and a member of the Board of Directors of Great American Development Company, the real estate development subsidiary of Great American Bank.
