.....BILL SWANK

Yep, it is almost that time again. They are already running the base paths in Spring Training and our good friend Bill Swank is anxious to get us ready for the 2005 Padres Season.

You remember Bill he has visited before and had terrific stories to tell us about our Padres of yore and today.

Bill Swank is a retired San Diego County probation officer, baseball historian, lecturer and writer.

His seat was always on the first base line & we love to hear him tell about it.

SOME NOTE ON SOME REGULARS

I would truly be remiss if I didn't start out by saying we are missing our good buddy Bill Gibbs, those flower auctions are just not the same without our instigator. Anyway we believe he has taken care of enough business and needs to get back to the fun and games.

I've talked to our good friend Rev. Art Sueltz who has gone a couple of rounds with surgeries this past year, but tells me he is feeling PRETTY GOOD and will be back soon.

And we were extreeeee happy to see our pal Jim Polak back at the table again. Seems his Peggy has had some ups and downs and we send her our best.

AND

Speaking of those SDSU musicians, don't forget to get yourself to the last free noon concert at the Lyceum Theater on April 4, 2005. It will be the lads of The Infinite Jazz Quartet. We have kinda grown up with these fellows and I just want to say, they are a pretty awesome group.
