THE PROGRAM

...JACK GILBERT, ED.D. PRESIDENT

Jack Gilbert is an award-winning author and a consultant to multi-national corporations. For the past thirty years, he has focused on issues of leadership, large-scale change, and organizational and personal ethics. Jack is a fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives and he holds his doctorate from The George Washington University in Washington, DC where his dissertation focused on the role of ethics in decision-making.

Jack will speak about how the headlines we see almost every day about ethical crimes often find their roots in a subtle erosion of ethics to which every organization is vulnerable. He will explore this phenomenon of ethical erosion and key ways in which organizations can guard themselves against it.
