TIDINGS

KIWANIS CLUB OF SAN DIEGO

THE PROGRAM

.....David Brown
David Thomas Brown was born in October 1935 in Salisbury, Wiltshire, not far from Stonehenge.

Mr. Brown saw military duty in the Queen's Service at an early age and suffered numerous battle wounds. His military background is extremely impressive and far reaching. He saw action in Egypt and Kenya (awarded the Kenya Medal). He led a parachute assault on the Beirut Airport to link up with the US' 6th fleet. And the tale just gets more intriguing after he leaves the service. A cabaret career, the movies and a electric bass player.

And somehow along the way he met and married a San Diego girl and got into the writing business.

NOTES OF INTEREST

Last week

It was an honor to receive our young JROTC from San Diego High School who performed our Opening ceremony by parading the colors for us. It was especially nice for this reporter to make note that there were 4 females with some classy honors to their credit.

And Eldon was especially to pitch in $5 for the honor of announcing his son has just been awarded the Bronze Star for Valor.

Charley Kakos was just back from an interesting trip to Egypt and paid a buck cuz it was nice to be away from all that "protection" stuff.

Bill Gibbs paid another buck cuz he is still here. Atta boy.

Chuck Day put in a few bucks so that he could announce the terrific success of the Miracle Mile of Quarters-$160,000 raised.
