NOTES FROM THE 7/26 MEETING & OTHER STUFF...

The meeting was opened by scouts doing the pledge and the scout oath.

We were delighted to see our friend Paul

Riggs at the meeting - sporting his new liver!!!

Mark McDonald brought Paul. Paul looks better than we have ever seen him - did you find the fountain of youth Paul?

Ethel Merriman introduced a representative from Los Ninos and presented her with a $2440 check from our foundation.

Persida introduced Ash Hayes and presented Ash with his Legion of Honor for 48 years in Kiwanis.

A few weeks ago Bob Shumake won a $450 Sad Sack pot, so Bob PROMISED that he would buy the drinks at the bar before the meeting today. A total of 15 members arrived at the bar ordering big time BUT Bob did not show up. He finally arrived after we at all moved to the meeting. Bob even put a band aid on his cheek and tried to use the excuse that he had been to a doctor. That story didn't sell so John Kizer presented Bob with a $115 bar tab.

Another beautiful Flower by Coley arrangement was auctioned. Paul Riggs thought that his wife Barbara might deserve something for the many weeks of caring for him so he took it with a $40 bid
