THE PROGRAM

.....RUSS STOLNACK

Russ Stolnack is a well known San Diego personality known by his nick name Russ T. Nailz

From 1984 to 1994 Russ was the morning man on the radio station 91XFM, simultaneously developing stand-up comedy routines with guitar in hand. Russ was the KUSI "Man about Town". He has appeared on countless radio and TV commercials. His stand-up comedy routine is still performed in La Vegas, Lake Tahoe and at corporate and private events.

Russ has won six local Emmys and won "The National Speakers Association's Humorous Speaker Competition". You can also catch him entertaining children with his in school literacy program.

NOTEWORTHY EVENTS

At Tuesday's meeting not only was Dad Mark Jankowski proud of that young man beside him, but we all should have known that he was destined for great things when back in June of 1995 he (Ryan Jankowski) and his dad did the 648 mile Berkeley bike trip and donated $300 to the Foundation. Today Ryan has not only graduated but has his PHD and is working on a cure for cancer.

Likewise, life is treating Chuck Mulroy pretty good as he celebrated the appearance of his 2nd grand-daughter.

James Rigopoulos was our only birthday boy, & yes it was really hard to believe that BOY paid a fine of $42.

DID U KNOW???

Bill Gibbs has been absent due to a bit of a bloody nose, but not to worry he promises he will return soon. ANYWAY you know he has started a little tradition that usually costs him a pretty penny if there is a pretty lady visitor. In his absence this last week it took 4 members to lasso that Coley masterpiece & present it "a-la Gibbs" to Eldon's daughter-in-law. AND ELDON WAS TICKLED PINK SON CAPT ERIC & 8 PALS JOINED US FROM IRAQ.
