Chief Lansdowne was sworn in as San Diego's Chief of Police in August 2003. He took command of a department with 2,096 sworn officers, 766 civilian support personnel, and a budget of $272 million. He reports directly to the City Manager. San Diego with a population of 1.27 million people is the seventh largest city in the United States.

Chief Lansdowne was born in Oakland, CA on May 10, 1944. He graduated from San Jose State University in 1973 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice Administration.

The Chief began his law enforcement career in 1966 when he joined the San Jose Police Department. Over the years he rose steadily through the ranks and in 1998 after a brief stint in Richmond, CA he became San Jose's "top cop".

Over the years, Chief Lansdowne has expanded his expertise and his reputation as one of the foremost law enforcement professionals in the country. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy and has served on a variety of state and national boards, including the Major Cities Chiefs and the national Conference for Community and Justice.

ANNUAL HOLIDAY PARTY

We had a SWELL time at the Lighthouse on the sub base last Thursday night. There were 77 of us that dined on Prime Rib or Salmon in a beautifully appointed room that boasted a dance floor and Christmas tree and a full bar. There was plenty of room for "The Infinite" from SDSU (thanks Bill Gibbs and Ethel for providing the $$ to make that happen) Peter Keller graciously snapped away on mementos for all "COLEYS" as in Ken Coley provided our Centerpieces that went home with lucky winners. And thanks to John Kizer who transported ALL our toys to the ASYMCA. Ethel and June had fun setting the whole thing up and we just wanted to say "Thanks for coming to our PARTY. See you next year....."
