

A reminder

The clothing collection will be on in earnest next Tuesday and members should by all means bring along their bundles as each such will be looked upon by some recipient as a "bundle from heaven," so better not forget to bring it along next Tuesday, the 17th.

Each member should bring along at least five pounds and as much more as you can for we should and must make our contribution go over the top of our allotment. Russ Stowell will have a large, yes, very large wagon on hand to take the clothes to the distribution center so DO NOT FAIL TO BRING YOUR BUNDLE.

War Bonds for Victory

Elmer Busenburg, speaking for Jim McKinney, chairman of the War Bond Committee, reminded members that the Seventh War Bond Drive is now under way.

While this latest drive will be a little more extensive than former drives, nevertheless, it behooves all to get into the band wagon and start singing or signing or both.

We must keep up our buying and not think that we have done our duty with past performances for the men at the front cannot say that they have won several battles and that they are going to quit. They have to keep right on doing their work and so we, too, have to go right on buying our bonds until the end and then and then only can we have a respite from buying obligations for that is perhaps the only way in which many of us can do our bit "at the front."

We are looking ahead to a Million Bonds sold through our club. What can YOU do about it?

A thought for today

ONE MORE MINUTE

Kiwanians are not intentionally discourteous. Yet, oddly enough, discourtesy to our speakers-of-the-day is quite common. The larger the club, the more frequently is this particular form of discourtesy shown.

When a speaker has finished his talk, it is of course his due that the president or the program chairman thank him for his kindness in preparing and delivering that talk. He worked hard on it, and he is entitled to the thanks of the club.

Sad to say, thoughtless members will rise from their seats and start away from the meeting while the speaker is still being thanked. It is as though a host started upstairs to bed before his guests were through the front door.

Contrary to common belief, speeches do not ooze out of the speaker of the day like otto of roses oozing out of an otter. They are the product of research and study, and the man who takes all this time and trouble is certainly entitled to the courtesy of the club members while he is receiving his only pay—a word of thanks.

Let us hope that this unfortunate discourtesy will be discontinued in the clubs where it happens regularly. It certainly does not fill the speaker with a great desire to return and address the club in the future.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Rev. James Calvin Bible, father of Clayton and Graham.

Future San Diego

The talk given by Elwood Bailey about the future of San Diego and the great potential growth in the tourist and convention trade was that with such men as is represented in this work in San Diego that we can with confidence look forward to a large influx of visitors in the early future after the duration.

Elwood stressed most of all our need for proper convention facilities and it should be our earnest endeavor to have a Municipal Convention Hall, one which will take care of several conventions at one time and give other facilities in addition. This should be our first objective when going is good and we should not have to wait years for a fulfillment of our greatest need for future prosperity of San Diego. Let's get busy and back such a movement at once.

Thank you Elwood for your time and rousing talk about our "what we have but don't see" possibilities.

Next Tuesday we will have an interesting picture entitled "Music in the Sky," camera thrills of the war.

This picture will be shown through the courtesy of the General Electric Company. Ward Fitzpatrick will be program chairman.

OCEAN BEACH

Ladies Night was observed at the meeting Tuesday night of the Kiwanis Club of Ocean Beach, with a nearly 100 per cent attendance of both the men and women. Honored guests were Von Marshall, district lieutenant governor, and Mrs. Marshall, from the La Mesa club. Marshall spoke briefly of the Kiwanis divisional meeting, held April 5 at Calexico. Dr. W. B. Oster and James F. Roberts of the Ocean Beach club were among the 117 Kiwanians in attendance there, he said.

Other visiting Kiwanians were: Ernest Boud of the East San Diego club, city councilman; James McKinney and Henry Woods, both of the San Diego club. Milt Lancaster introduced Lieut. Fred Tripp, an old schoolmate friend whom he had not seen for 21 years.

A feature of the program, for which Rev. James F. Roberts was chairman, was piano solos played by Mrs. Thelma Dewar of the local Bank of America staff.

Speaker of the evening was Dean Peterson of San Diego State College, who gave a thought-provoking and timely address on world affairs, paying particular attention to the various international conferences that have been held, both for the purpose of furthering the Allies' victory in this war and for arranging an effective and lasting peace.

He expressed confidence that out of these various conferences there would result more effective unity and cooperation among the nations of the world than was the case following the first World War.

FOR VICTORY

NEW MEMBERS

Our three new additions made an imposing picture at the front table at our last meeting and we are certainly glad to have them with us.

After being properly introduced to the club they were charged with their responsibilities by Harry Fraser, dean of presidents of our club, and what a thorough charge it was.

Harry, through his many years experience in Kiwanis knows Kiwanis and what is better, he knows how to impress the fundamentals upon new members coming into the club in no uncertain manner.

Here are the names of our "baby" members:

Donald (Don) C. Kerns, classification, Bottled and Bulk Water Distributer, manager of the Arrowhead & Puritas Water Co., office, 1735 Hancock Street, phone W. 2117. He resides at 3509 Jewel Street (9).

R. Douglas Maw (Doug), son of our former member Norman Maw. Doug is staff assistant in the contract and readjustment department of the Ryan Aeronautical Company, Lindbergh Field. He resides at 3212 Madrid (10), and his phone is F. 7460.

William (Bill) E. Males, is assistant manager of the Anderson Furniture Company located at 751 Seventh Avenue, phone M. 8635. He resides at 3328 Grim Street.

All of these men will be placed on some committee in the near future and we know that they not only will enjoy their assignments
