NEW PRESIDENT NAMED FOR KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

J. A. RANEY
President-Elect
Kiwanis International

Jackson A. Raney, Indianapolis school executive, has been named President of Kiwanis International. He was elected to the number-one Kiwanis post Wednesday, June 29th, by delegates attending the 40th annual Convention of Kiwanis International at Cleveland, Ohio, who also selected San Francisco as the site for the 1956 Convention. News of Raney's election was received here today.

As head of Kiwanis International, Raney will be official spokesman for almost a quarter million Kiwanians in 4062 clubs located throughout the United States and Canada, and in Alaska and the Hawaiian Islands. He succeeds Don E. Engdahl, Spokane, Washington lumberman who has held the post since August of 1954.

Raney has devoted most of his professional life to the education of the physically-handicapped. He has been superintendent of the Indiana State School for the Deaf at Indianapolis for 20 years. He is a graduate of Franklin College and a member of its council. Recently, he received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from that institution.

Kiwanis' President-elect has been an active Kiwanian for 19 years. Immediately prior to his selection for the number-one Kiwanis post, he was vice-president of the organization. He also chairmanned the International Convention Program Committee for this year, and for 1954. He has served as president of his own Indianapolis Kiwanis Club, lieutenant governor and governor of the Indiana Kiwanis District and chairman of the International Committee on Boys and Girls Work. His work in the field of boys and girls work has been instrumental in bringing increased public attention to the various Kiwanis programs devoted to the welfare of the youth of the United States and Canada.

Delegates to the Cleveland Convention, Kiwanis' 40th, numbered more than 13,000, to make the convention one of the organization's largest. In addition to naming Raney their President, the delegates also chose two vice-presidents, a treasurer and six international trustees. They are: Harold John Fraser, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan and W. Donald Dubail, St. Louis, Missouri, vice-presidents; Reed C. Culp, Salt Lake City, Utah, treasurer; Luman W. Holman, Jacksonville, Texas, Walter F. Patenge, Lansing, Michigan, Everett F. Penshorn, Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, Simon H. Reynolds, Rochester, New York, Merle H. Tucker, Gallup, New Mexico and Albert J. Tully, Mobile, Alabama, trustees.
