International President

NOTED GEORGIA BUSINESSMAN TO HEAD KIWANIS

Hamilton Holt, nationally known granite manufacturer and president of the Associated Industries of Georgia, was elected president of Kiwanis International at a meeting of the International Council June 25 to 27 at Chicago.

The Council, consisting of the Officers and Trustees, Governors, and Past Presidents of Kiwanis International, convened for the two-day session following a decision of the board to cancel the annual convention for the third consecutive year in line with wartime travel restrictions.

Long Experience

In succeeding Ben Dean, Grand Rapids advertising executive, as president, Hamilton Holt will draw upon years of Kiwanis experience in carrying out the duties of his new position. He is the immediate past treasurer, a former member of the board, and one time International committee chairman. His record also includes the presidency of the Kiwanis Club of Macon and governorship of the Georgia Kiwanis District.

The new president, who resides at Macon, Ga., has long been active in southern business circles. He is a member of the Governor's War Council and the State Commission to Revise the Georgia Constitution, a trustee of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., and vice chairman of the Committee on Group Cooperation for the National Association of Manufacturers.

Pledges War Support

In his inaugural address, President Holt declared that some 2,300 Kiwanis clubs and approximately 150,000 members throughout the United States and Canada will continue to actively support the war against Japan until victory has been achieved.

He urged Kiwanians in the year ahead to throw their weight behind the San Francisco charter for a world peace organization, to care for returning service men and women, and "to do everything possible to protect and maintain our democratic form of government."

Immediate Past President Dean will continue to serve on the International Board for the ensuing year. He succeeds Donald B. Rice, Oakland, Calif., who served as president during the 1943-44 administrative year.

Children proud of awards

Kiwanis Club of San Diego:

The board of directors wishes to thank your organization for presenting the annual citizenship award to the children. It is one of the finest of the many things you do. An incentive for these children to be the kind of citizens we want, and a great source of pride to the three who were able to achieve the goal.

Sincerely,

Children's Convalescent Home,

Lucile E. Hamilton,

Corresponding Secretary.

Talk by Dean Arthur G. Peterson outstanding.

Our speaker last Tuesday, Dean Arthur G. Peterson of the San Diego State College, a Past President of this Club, fulfilled the highest demands of members in his talk given last Tuesday.

Arthur talked about the nation's World Charter and gave much interesting information about this project, its cause and fulfillment possibilities.

Having given this a careful study, he was in an exceptional position to give us "the works" in a clear, understandable way and members have been loud in their praise of his handling of a very important and vital subject.

Thank you, Arthur, for another one of your welcome talks. It certainly was appreciated by all.

Minute of Prayer at six each evening.

Members urged to observe this period daily.

URGE UNITED PRAYER FOR PACIFIC VICTORY

Kiwanians of all faiths have been called upon to support the "minute of prayer" at six o'clock each evening, sponsored by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

The moment has been set aside as a period of united supplication for a speedy victory in the Pacific War, and as a prayerful rededication to the principles of permanent peace.

Ringling of church bells throughout the country daily proclaims the period, while a major radio network has broadcast a special minute program. These prayers have been carefully prepared and presented by representatives of the three faiths.

KIWANIS OBJECTIVES FOR '45

Hasten total victory—Accelerate club war activities.

Exert our influence to establish and maintain world peace.

Enlist every Kiwanian in a club or community project for service to returning veterans.

Cooperate in community post-war employment programs.

Promote understanding and cooperation among social and economical groups as essential to National Unity.

Intensify Kiwanis youth services—Build future citizens.

Fulfill citizenship obligations lest we forfeit government.

Further the friendship between Canada and the United States as a world example of international goodwill.

Work to preserve freedom of opportunity for all.

Stress spiritual values as vital to human progress.

WIN THE WAR—BUILD FOR PEACE.

WARNING

The enemy wants to know all about our military plans and troop movements. If you know, DON'T TELL anyone. The Army and Navy can tell them in a much more satisfactory manner (to us). If you must talk, -- "Tell it to the Marines"

NEW MEMBERS

Three news members were inducted into the club last Tuesday, being introduced by three members and then charged by Harry Malm, who, by the way, did a very good job of it.

These men are fine additions to our club and we are glad to have them.

Leo Calland, Recreational Director for the City Schools as well as for the City Playgrounds is not new in our community, having built up a reputation in athletic and sport field that has made him outstanding not only in San Diego but in every field of war action in which he has operated.

Room 704 Civic Center.

Willis R. McCabe, personnel director of the City of San Diego with offices in the Civic Center.

Ferd Liotta, director of vocational education, San Diego City Schools.

THE OBJECTS OF KIWANIS

To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards.

To develop by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a
