Last Tuesday's program staged by the Foundation presented compelling reasons for each of us to make a generous pledge to the Foundation this year. The comments of the four articulate young

"WE BUILD"

"Kiwanis Watchbird"

It is difficult to be absolutely certain, but it appeared to this listener that the money bags next to the flag last Tuesday caused a bit of soul searching. One voice seemed to say, "I pledge allegiance to The Bank of America . . . etc." It was either an employee or a borrower.

HA! We fully expect our KI-WANIANS to note this corner of the TIDINGS, but never dreamed the head chef of "El Coldcuts" also read it. No sooner do we mention the possibility—and we are eating it. NOW—vacation season has been officially declared. If for no other reason, to escape the cold cuts. (Actually, it wasn't that bad. A little raw meat is in keeping with the pool view!)

No one likes to be drawn into a discussion of semantics, but we must not let this one go unchallenged. Rog Anderson, while introducing new (and welcome) member Neil Shaeffer, informed us Neil "descended" from a long line of Rotarians. We prefer the word "ascended"! And we are certain he will be much happier with we builders than with those old landlords.

Welcome also to new member Tom Peak—via Senor Ed Scott. Sorry about that, Tom! (Ed actually speaks very good Spanish—if you happen to be from FINLAND and have never heard it before.)

Our visitor from Honolulu, Sam Omygoshiforgot, received a compliment he never recognized. Apparently someone thought better of presenting him the "San Diego, Heaven on Earth" certificate and membership. Rather forget it than offend him?

Have had only two inquiries about it, but that constitutes a unanimous mail bag, so we must ask the question. "What happened to the three-minute news cast we so enjoyed during our dessert?" It surely isn't a local version of news suppression?

Not that anyone expects it, but a comment about Tuesday's unique program is probably in order for those who may have missed it. Let's put it this way. Despite the outside distractions; the unfortunate absence of Al Rosa; the missing trumpet from the Tijuana Tin (formerly Lower Broadway Musical Society); the challenges from the floor; the missing black boxes; the mix-up of the photos; the delay of the Foundation money sacks; the head table prompting; and the overall good fellowship that prevailed, Uncle Tom Baldauf handled it beautifully!

From the "So you think you have troubles!" department. Here is a one-half hour biography of one of our members last Tuesday. Left the office promptly at 11:45 a.m. Was stopped by one of the city's finest promptly at 11:45 a.m. Underway again promptly at 11:59 with speed violation certificate and cauliflower ears. Stopped promptly at 12:03 with front end securely under florist delivery truck. Same officer arrives promptly at 12:03½. Tow truck arrives not so promptly at 12:28 p.m. Officer finishes soliloquy and penmanship exercise at 12:30 p.m. Taxi arrives promptly, 12:42 p.m. Kiwanian arrives El Cortez not so promptly, 12:52 p.m., discovering very prompt Secretary recording absence. Obviously the last straw. Kiwanian departs promptly.

Ed. Note: Personally, I'm on his side! If I had an extra make-up slip, I'd give it to him!

men, who told us what the Foundation giving has meant to them, represented thousands of others who have felt the generosity of our club. But more importantly, they told us of their first-hand experiences resulting from the Kiwanis Motto, "We Build." Let's continue and accelerate this building process among the young men of our community by returning our pledges or checks this week.

Our good secretary Ed left this week on a trip to Portland, where he will be joined by President-Elect Milt Cheverton for the International Convention. Ed will combine the convention trip with his vacation and will return July 25. In his absence, Alice Julian will ably carry out his duties in the Kiwanis Office and at our regular Tuesday meetings and Board meetings.

Last Tuesday, Sam Hirota of the Kiwanis International Airport Club in Honolulu brought greetings from Hawaii and extended his personal invitation for us to attend the District Convention in August. This is the last call for reservations and registration for the District Convention since block hotel and airline space not reserved by June 30 will be released.

"Is it proper for a man to profit from the mistakes of another?" a parishioner asked the cleric.

"Absolutely not!" was the response.

"In that case," said the young man, "I wonder if you would mind returning the ten dollars I paid you when you married my wife and me last year?"
