Our program next Tuesday will be a Bond Rally plus a celebration of the annual National Flag Day and we can look forward to a program strongly in keeping with both occasions.

The program will be under the direction of J. S. Mosby, MM1/c, of the United States Navy, who will act as Master of Ceremonies.

With him will be Richard Slinger, BM2/C, and Edgar L. Hyde, F1/C, and last but not least we are to have the Kwintones, a musical quintette of five colored Navy boys who have made quite a name for themselves in the entertainment field through their singing.

Having heard them before, we can recommend them as being tops and they will add much to the day of entertainment which we are sure to enjoy to the limit.

Tom Bomar, recently returned to active membership to the Club from his Military or Naval work will be Program Chairman.

Major Stowe of the Military Intelligence Department gave us a most enlightening talk and in a very polite yet forceful way told us that the best thing that we as citizens can do in the war effort is to keep our lips buttoned as to telling of any war information coming to us.

He cited several instances where just a little slip gave the enemy much information as to enable him to do much damage so we as Kiwanians can do much toward the keeping of secret information and advising others to do likewise.

Major Yeacker as program chairman gave a good account of himself in that position for he handled the "job" like a veteran.

The Contest is on!

We must win, or else?

"Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the party" is a much hackneyed phrase but still comes in good stead for we now have a job on our hands for each and every one of us to do.

A circular letter was sent to every member of the New Orleans Club as a challenge to beat us to the finish.

Can they do it?

It will be up to every individual member of our club to be present at every meeting in June.

We believe that this is the first contest held in Kiwanis covering clubs so far apart and it will no doubt set an example for the rest of International so it is up to us to show what can be done.

We have several members who seem to find it rather difficult to come out to every meeting or to make up when they miss but the committee hopes that they will become imbued with the little shot of sporting needle to at least make it a point to attend every meeting during June.

This is not much to ask for we must all realize that attending meetings is our duty to Kiwanis and to our club and with the rules allowing not more than three misses without an excuse or missing more than 40% of the meetings during a six month period subjects a member to dismissal it should be the desire of every member to either be present or make up.

We have one member now who is going to be hospitalized for several weeks and he has therefore made up his attendance in advance so that he will retain his perfect score and not let the club down during this intensive campaign with New Orleans.

What say you?

Our first meeting in June during the "contest" netted us a very poor percentage but will no doubt be improved with the several makeups in store for members.

We now have 116 active members and there were 99 present last Tuesday. Seventeen members absent on one day Whew! ! what a let down.

NEW MEMBERS

Our newest member is John A. Davis, Vice-President and Comptroller of the National Iron Works.

John is not new to Kiwanis for he proudly displays a Past President's pin with a five-year perfect attendance record, having been president of the Monterey Club and before that at San Francisco.

We know that he will enjoy our club for a Past President always knows what "makes it tick" so he will again become a good working member.

OCEAN BEACH

"I may be sticking my neck out, but I believe we will finish the season in the top four of the league," Secretary Warren Mead of the San Diego Padres, declared in his baseball talk before the Kiwanis Club here Tuesday evening. Mr. Mead is a resident of Ocean Beach. J. O. "Tom" Plant was the program chairman.

Guests at the meeting included Harry Smith of Convair, a guest of Don Thomson; Carroll Reed, a guest of Dan Moss, H. N. McKee of the San Diego Kiwanis Club; Lieut. Robinson of Trenton, N. J., Kiwanis Club; and Mrs. Harris, of Long Beach, mother of Father Phillip Harris, a guest of her son.

Carl Dumler, leading pitcher of the Padres, accompanied Mead to the meeting and was introduced by him.

"Though we had a pretty fair club in 1943 and in 1944, to provide for the fans the highest caliber of baseball in war time, naturally is not possible," declared the speaker. He told of the various players of the club, mentioned new players that have been bought recently and gave high praise to "Pepper" Martin, the Padres manager. "Martin in a fine example of a true sportsman," he said. "He does not drink liquor, and though past 40, he goes in there himself and wins games for us, like he did Sunday, playing first base. He was all over the infield and we even found him backing up third base on occasion. Pepper intends to give San Diego a fighting club."

Next week's program will be in charge of Myron Insko as program chairman and the speaker will be Capt. O. W. Todd, member of San Diego Kiwanis Club, on the subject of his "Experiences in the South Pacific."
