Red Cross Drive

The inspiring picture shown last Tuesday of our Army in Italy under the sponsorship of the American Red Cross was one that would make a miser part with his money in order to keep up the grand work that this noble organization is accomplishing at the front.

The many activities plus the comfort they are to the boys at the front makes the Red Cross work of primary importance and it certainly needs all the assistance that can be given it.

Using money at the rate of approximately $6.00 per second is using it up rather rapidly BUT the great amount of good that it is accomplishing is not and never can be measured in dollars and cents.

Let's leave the dollar sign out of our contribution and put into its place your heart and you will give more than you ever thought of doing.

A wise man is like a straight pin; his head keeps him from going too far . . . . .

OCEAN BEACH

More evidence of the great work that the Red Cross is doing for the servicemen was provided to Kiwanis Club members at their Tuesday meeting by the two speakers of the evening, James Knowles of Ocean Beach, a leader in Red Cross activity down town, and by Jack Porte of Mission Beach, chairman of the American Legion County Welfare Society. Knowles had arranged for two members of the Marine Corps from the local Marine base to assist in putting on a 10-minute program of moving pictures of what the Red Cross is doing in this war. The two Marines were Sgt. Ed Phillips of New York City and Pfc. Howard Gatlin of Del Rio, Texas. Program chairman for the evening was Earl Shaw.

Knowles declared that the biggest job the Red Cross is doing is for the men in the service, and for after the war the biggest Red Cross job is expected to be rehabilitation of the civilians in the war devastated countries of the world.

Porte, who in civilian life is a sculptor, thrilled his listeners with a graphic account of his seven years of duty with the famous French Foreign Legion, and at conclusion replied to many questions about the Legion. The Legion, he said, had done considerable development work as well as policing of the Arabs in the French colonies of North Africa. He closed with a plea for the Red Cross.

Wm. Don Thomson of Ocean Beach was a visitor at the meeting, a guest of Joe R. Lownes.

A Kiwanis education quizz is on the program for next week's meeting.

Easter Program March 27th.

Ladies Day

On March 27th we will have a special program to celebrate "Easter" and Berma Bonham will be in charge of the program.

This will be a Ladies Day and special Easter music will be enjoyed for the day.

Berma Bonham — Easter —
Music — Ladies Day — 'nuff said.

VISITORS

We again had a number of out-of-town Kiwanian visitors and are always glad to have them especially such as Lt. j.g. Arthur M. Hill, of Vero Beach, Florida, and Lester Berger, Sioux City, Iowa.

Florida and California are getting closer and closer and after a while we will have to move Florida over to the west coast so more visitors can enjoy this fine climate and gentle rains we are having.

Other visitors were Charles Anderson, National City; Jim Mahood, East San Diego; Don Kerns, Jack Retlow and Wm. Males, the guests of Dwight Keider; Carl F. Hahn, guest of Ward Fitzpatrick; Dick Barthelmess, guest of Louis Bodmer; H. N. Seabeck, guest of Ewart Goodwin, and Frank Harmon, La Jolla, guest of Don Hanson.
