

KATE SMITH SALUTES KIWANIANs, CLUBS IN NATIONAL BROADCAST

In a stirring tribute over the nation-wide facilities of the Columbia Broadcasting System, Kate Smith commended Kiwanians of the United States and Canada for their wartime activities during 1944.

The songbird of the air, who conducts one of America's most popular 15-minute daytime shows, devoted several minutes to a description of Kiwanis International, its 2,250 clubs, its ideals, projects and 1945 administrative theme.

She pointed out that Kiwanians last year bought and sold war bonds valued at $1,000,000,000, collected more than 600,000 tons of scrap, donated 50,000 pints of blood, sent millions of cigarettes to the overseas armed forces, and kept in touch with some 2,000,000 servicemen and women by letter and the mailing of hometown newspapers.

The fines collected last Tuesday amounted to quite a neat sum of money, which of course will be put to good use in the Child Welfare work so all members who did NOT bring their ladies helped this fund in no small manner. It would seem from a count of money collected that about thirty-four members were negligent or remiss in their duties, so what? One dollar each man, that was the answer.

Tuesday, the day to hand that Feb. Committee re- port to the Secretary

Now is the time for all good "Chairmen" to come to the aid of the Secretary by turning in their monthly reports of activities and proposed activities.

One report has been received and the rest MUST be in by next Tuesday so that another comprehensive report can be sent in by the secretary to Headquarters. Thank you.

Attendance make-ups much appreciated by Board

It is very gratifying to the Board that so many members who are absent from the regular meetings make up their attendance either at some other club or at a directors or committee meeting during the month.

This not only makes our attendance better but it also acquaints members with the various activities of the club and thus they become better Kiwanians for knowing what it is all about.

Only by regular attendance or by attending some meeting of committees or the board can members really get a first hand knowledge of the inner work of Kiwanis, so keep on coming fellows, even if you don't need to make-up attendance. It will certainly not do you any harm and might do you some good in the way of better ideas of Kiwanis work.

Among our many Kiwanis visitors, we had several from distant points. H. L. Morrison, Huntington Park, Eugene F. Gray, Worcester, Mass., Will Hildebrand, El Segundo, Bill Dunlap and A. H. Spearbraker, both of Westwood Village, Calif.

Dr. Jones gives inspiring talk

Suffice to say our speaker last Tuesday, Dr. E. Stanley Jones, met the test of good speakers and subjects with his all-together too short address on matters which gave his listeners much to think about.

Dr. Jones is at present giving talks at the First Presbyterian Church as well as over the radio and drew one of the largest crowds we have had for a long time as there were more than 160 people in attendance. This number of course included the many ladies present as this had been designated as "Ladies" day and we are sure they too enjoyed this talk.

The next War Loan Drive will soon be under way as information is received that it will start in April or early in May.

Our Club plans of course, will be to try to surpass our highest mark of $940,875.00 and this will again call for your cooperation as in the past.

OCEAN BEACH

Hosts to Lions Club

OCEAN BEACH NEWS S
Ocean Beach Kiwanis meeting of Tuesday evening was featured by a large delegation of visitors from the Mission Beach-Pacific Beach Lions club. Other visitors were City Councilman C. C. Crary, a member of the La Jolla Kiwanis Club, and Lowell Howe of the municipal court of San Diego.

Responding to introductions by President Jerry Sullivan, President Lovell and Vice President Prentiss Shcafer of the visiting club spoke briefly. Fred Renneker of the visiting club was their main speaker and gave a history of the Lions club, which now has, he said, about 180,00 members in 15 different countries. Primary purpose of the Lions club, he said, is to solve local problems. He closed his remarks with the reading of the Lions code of Ethics.

Main speaker for the evening program was Dr. Myron Insko, past lieutenant governor and member of the local club. He was introduced by Dr. Frank B. McElwee, program chairman for the evening.

Dr. Insko pleased the crowd with a scholarly speech on Rudyard Kipling, interweaving into the talk the recitation of parts of Kipling's best known and liked poems. He paid high compliment to the famous English poet.
