

NEW MEMBERS' Day next Tuesday

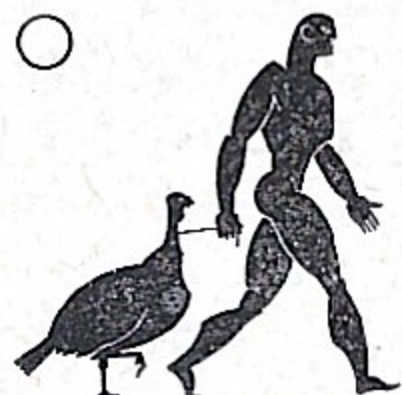

Annual event to be surprise program

Next Tuesday will be New Members Day under the guidance of Russ Stowell who will also be Program Chairman.

We have had no details of just what the program will be but surmise that it will be par or better with Russ in charge.

The custom of having a new members day originated several years ago and in this manner, those who have joined the club in the past year will have a double opportunity of getting better acquainted with each other and getting better acquainted with the older members of the club.

A large number have been admitted during the past ten months and we should have a goodly turnout to again welcome these members into our midst.

The annual training school for officers, followed by the Installation dinner for Lieutenant Governor elect, will be held at the Planters and Dunlac Hotels in Brawley, Tues, Dec. 4, starting 2 p m Anniversary dinner arrangements well under way.

The Ladies committee of the Silver Anniversary Dinner met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Cleo Scott, chairman of the ladies and no doubt put the finishing touches on their part of our anniversary program evening.

The entire committee met Thursday evening at the home of Harry Fraser for the purpose of again going over the final plans and smoothing out the entire program and evening.

Cards are being sent out to members which should be filled out and returned at once so that the committee will know just how many plates to provide for. You know, the war is over but the delays of normalcy linger on so we have to adjust ourselves and our plans to the end that those intending to take part in this all important club event will not be disappointed.

Our annual Christmas party is coming closer to date and the committee has been working diligently to make this another one of those outstanding successes that the past programs have been.

The talk made by Dr. Corey at our past meeting for American Public School week was enjoyed to the limit.

Dr. Corey has a way of talking that is both pleasing and instructive and his story of the creation of man and woman and the results were interesting and certainly brought out the points in his talk.

Thank you Dr. Corey for your talk to us and also thanks to Maurice Ross for arranging this opportunity to have Dr. Corey with us.

The following bulletin is here-with reprinted as it contains much wise counsel and it might be well if you belong to some organization that needs this information, to contact Mrs. Swindell for advice and guidance as to the best way to work out your party.

COMMUNITY WELFARE

BULLETIN

For a number of years we have operated a Christmas Bureau for the purpose of preventing duplication of gifts and the spreading of Christmas cheer among as many families and children as possible.

During the war years we have omitted this activity but plan to resume it this year.

The Christmas Bureau will be conducted in the Council Office, Room 101, Community Welfare Building, 645 "A" Street, F-6361. Mrs. Anne T. Swindell, of our staff, will be in charge.

The Christmas Bureau will offer the following services:

(1) Registration of all recipients of Christmas cheer. A card has been prepared for use of all organizations, groups and agencies planning cash, baskets, toys, clothing or to conduct a Christmas party.

Where two or more organizations have the same family on their list, they will be notified of this duplication. The Bureau will assist in clearing the names of children being invited to attend various Christmas functions.

Registration cards are available at the Council Office and all groups are urged to fill out and return the cards not later than December 10. In general, it would seem fair that the first group registering a family, should be given the privilege of serving that family. Hence, it will be to your advantage to get your Christmas registration in early.

Consultation with groups in regard to their Christmas efforts, is another type of service which we are prepared to offer. Some groups are interested in providing gifts that are permanently useful to agencies, or in some cases to families. There is a general tendency toward getting away from the giving of the traditional Christmas Baskets. There are often more constructive ways in which Christmas aid can be given, and we will be glad to offer such counsel as our experience, and that of other cities, may indicate.

New Boy Scout Troop off to a flying start.
Our duty does not end
there

Bob Lindsay, chairman of the special Boy Scout Committee announced that the meeting of the new Boy Scout troop was held on Thursday evening, November 15 at the Calvary Baptist Church corner, Crosby and Julian Street.

The troop is sponsored by the Church and this we believe is the first Colored Boy Scout Troop in the city, at least we know it is the first one organized through our efforts.

This work will meet a crying need for proper supervision and organization of these young boys in the "teen" age bracket and it is sincerely hoped that it will be the means of interesting many of the young boys of that neighborhood in this fine "American Youth" enterprise.

The committee has really worked hard to get this under way and at our last meeting the new leader (colored) of the troop was a guest of the Club and Committee and personally invited members and their wives to the organization meeting and induction of the troop.

The secretary is again being "hounded" for additional sheets for the new roster of members whose pictures were not available when the first edition was printed and distributed.

There are still several members who insist on procrastination about having their picture taken and this only delays the game. Why not do something about it?
