

Silver Anniversary Party December 7th.

Dinner and Dancing

Harry Fraser, chairman of the Anniversary Committee gave a general outline of the meeting and by the time this copy of the Tidings reaches you, there will have been mailed a special invitation together with a return post card on which you must designate if you will attend as it is necessary to have this definite information owing to present conditions.

The program has all been arranged for and the committee is looking forward to the largest meeting ever held by and for Club members and their wives

The regular monthly meeting of the Kiwaniannes will be held in the home of Mrs. Donald E. Hanson Monday, December 3rd at 12:00 Noon. Members are urged to be on time. New members are especially invited as this is always a most enjoyable meeting. The wives of the Kiwanis members purchase and at this meeting wrap the gifts that the Kiwanis Club gives to the patients at the Childrens Convalescent Home at their annual Christmas Party. Co-hostesses to serve with Gertrude Hanson will be Maudine Rountree and Sarah Burton. Kindly note new address, 4240 Arguello Street, telephone J-3484.

GET YOUR ROSTER SUPPLEMENT TUESDAY

The second edition of the roster is now completed and additional sheets were in readiness to be handed the members last Tuesday.

The secretary made an announcement to this effect, begging the members to take their supplemental sheets with them but after the meeting, there were many left on hand not delivered. Why?

There are still ten members whose pictures are lacking for the complete roster and it is hoped that these will be furnished at once so that the roster can be complete and up to date by the time our Silver Anniversary comes around.

THE OBJECTS OF KIWANIS

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards.
- To develop by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service and to build better communities.
- To co-operate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism and good will.

The talk as given by Bruce Watt, general manager of the Stationers Corporation was a most unique discourse on Business Principles and deserves our warmest praise. Many men in business are prone to make the so called "almighty dollar" of more importance than principle and it is safe to assume, as the speaker said that everyone in business has to think several times before he reverts to principle rather than to income for his guidance in business affairs.

It has long been recognized in Kiwanis, as in other organizations that promotion and adoption and the application of higher social, business and professional standards was needful and service clubs are stressing this in every way and at all time.

The conditions in our country need our constant vigilance, not only in the thinking and action of our competitor but also in our own method and actions for the success of our country lies in business and the success of business lies in principle and therefore principle in business is the success of not only the business but also the country and prosperity.

Thank you Bruce Watt for a most unique talk, one which left us all with higher ideals and better thinking.

Our program next Tuesday will be a talk on the Atomic Bomb by Lawrence M. Klauber.

Lawrence has an illustrated lecture which makes everything plain on this subject and we are looking forward to an interesting talk so that we, too can make an atomic bomb.

Emery Sherwin will be program chairman.
