

International President Holt announces new Club Objectives

When Japan surrendered to the Allies and thoughts of all Americans and Canadians turned to peacetime reconversion, President Hamilton Holt immediately issued Kiwanis International's post-war objectives and urged clubs to consider ways and means of rendering greater community service.

"Since Dunkirk and Pearl Harbor," Holt declared, "Kiwaniis manpower has been marshalled behind the Allied war effort. These resources now will be directed toward the building of peace, unity and opportunity."

The Kiwanis theme for 1946 will be "Build for Peace—Unity—Opportunity."

The nine post-war objectives of Kiwanis International's 149,000 members in 2,300 communities follow:

1. Develop an understanding of the United Nations Charter in support of world peace.
2. Aid returning veterans.
3. Strengthen democracy by personal acceptance of citizenship responsibilities.

4. Expand your services to build character and citizenship.
5. Mobilize public opinion in support of individual enterprise and opportunity.
6. Encourage sound programs of reconversion.
7. Conserve natural resources for sound national economy.
8. Further good will between Canada and the United States as an outstanding example of international cooperation.
9. Develop national unity — through increased emphasis on human and spiritual values.

versant with the rules governing the membership of military service members.

The International Board of Trustees has ruled that upon the return of military service members, they shall be restored to their original classification.

They also shall be granted the privilege of retaining their military service status within the club for a period of one year following their discharge.

Better than 71 per cent of the members already discharged have been reinstated into active membership, but every returned Kiwanian has the right of retaining his military service membership for one year to cover the period of his readjustment to civilian life.

Another important ruling affects those members who were disabled while in service. It follows:

"The term of military service membership is extended to cover any member disabled in the armed service of his country as long as he is eligible for 50 per cent or more government disability compensation."

The period of military service membership will not interrupt a member's perfect attendance record. Any perfect attendance record shall be figured on the basis of a continued record accomplished before and after the period of military service membership.

Our next week's program will be a series of Motion Picture 'Shorts', furnished through the courtesy of the Standard Oil Company.

Bruce Thomas appeals for food and clothing for people of stranded countries.

In his very interesting talk last week, Bruce Thomas stated that anyone having relatives or friends in foreign countries which were over-run by the Germans should by all means send food and clothing as soon as possible in order to relieve these down-trodden peoples for the coming winter months.

Great hardships will have to be borne by all and the least we can do is to send clothing and food to them.

Ask your postman for more detailed information regarding the countries to which such shipments can be made.

PAST PRESIDENTS REAFFIRM STAND ON MEMBERSHIP

The International Board of Trustees has approved a recommendation by the Past International Presidents with respect to the Kiwanis stand on non-multiple membership in service organizations.

Kiwanis International has taken the position that members of its 2,300 clubs throughout the United States and Canada should refrain from affiliating with other community service organizations.

The board also approved a recommendation by the Past International Presidents that new members are fully informed as to the ideals and responsibilities of Kiwanis and that each new member be given a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws and information concerning Objects and Objectives.

Meet Kiwanians at your Conventions

It was interesting to note on a recent visit to Sacramento to the School Trustees Convention that at a dinner table consisting of four men and their wives, three of the men were Kiwanians.

In practically every group of men at nearly every convention, one finds many Kiwanians, active of course, for that is the kind of men who usually belong to the worthwhile group in civic and educational life of our country.

The next time you are placed in the company of delegates to some convention, just check up and find out how many of your co-delegates are Kiwanians and you will be agreeably surprised.

It was also possible for many to make up their attendance at the Sacramento Kiwanis Club where they were all welcomed.

Hugh Cassidy of La Jolla

We learn with deep regret the passing of one of the old members of the La Jolla Kiwanis Club. Hugh Cassidy.

Hugh, we believe, was a charter member of that club and only recently was given a 20-year perfect attendance pin on the occasion of the anniversary of that club.

He was a fine Kiwanian and quite frequently a visitor to our club where he had many friends.

We extend our sympathy.
