LADIES DAY

Program:

"THE HUMOR and PERSONALITY
of
PAT BUTTRAM"

Featuring:

PAT BUTTRAM

One of America's Great Humorists
(Just ask Gene Autry)

Chairman of the Day:

ROBERT SHUMAKE

THE PROGRAM

In Hollywood, where the nation's sharpest wits and funniest comedians often gather at the Friars, Masquers and Lambs Clubs to "honor" each other, one of the men most often called upon to host the festivities is PAT BUTTRAM.

Combining a sophisticated, pointed sense of humor with a genuine country-boy charm, Buttram is the natural successor to such homespun humorists as Bob Burns, Irvin S. Cobb and Will Rogers.

A talented actor as well, Pat is seen by millions of television viewers each week in the role of "Mr. Haney", on the top rated CBS-TV "Green Acres" series.

In a recent profile story on Pat, TV Guide described him as "TV's most engaging corn-fed con-artist and one of the nation's funniest after-dinner speakers, and one of the most quoted men in Hollywood."

Over the years, Pat has had recognition as a comedy actor, monologist and after-dinner wit. In 1933 he joined the "National Barn Dance" over Chicago's WLS with such stars as Gene Autry, Homer and Jethro, George Gobel, and many other top personalities. Joining forces with Autry, Buttram remained as the singing cowboy's sidekick for 15 years - starring in 70 movies and over a hundred TV films.

The ultimate accolade for PAT came from JACK BENNY who followed him one night and commented, "I've been praised for my timing. But PAT BUTTRAM makes me sound like Jack Warner."

DON'T miss meeting this delightful man in person. Bring your WIFE, FAMILY, and friends!

VIVIANE RETURNS TO FRANCE

VIVIANE departed for France on Friday Morning with an accumulation of wonderful memories resulting from her visit to San Diego!

LYDIA and I thoroughly enjoyed having her as a house guest. She was interesting company and most appreciative for having the opportunity to be here.

A very special thanks goes out to those members who offered their hospitality too: MO & PEGGY PEELE, TOM & ELLEN PEEK, BOB & JANE PRARIO, DR. GARO YERVANIAN BOB SHUMAKE, BUD SPRAGUE, CLIFF UNDERWOOD, and others who 'took time to care' making Viviane's visit such a memorable one!

Her father has written that she must plan on being the whole program at the Lille Kiwanis Club's first meeting after her return to tell them of her adventure. At that time she will present our Club banner to them commemorating her presentation to our Club. We can be proud that we participated in a truly Kiwanis International event.
